

The Wild

Season 1

Episodes: 208 Duration: 24'

Scandal and Conflict

Synopsis:

The Wild is a South African soap opera created by Rohan Dickson, Richard Nosworthy and Bronwyn Berry. Produced by M-Net's in-house production arm Magic Factory and shot entirely on location in high definition, the series revolves around three families – the Lebone's, the Van Reenen's and the Tladi's - who, because of past conflicts, struggle to negotiate a cohesive future, despite being bound together by their relationship to a special piece of land. The main backdrop to the story is a stretch of land that is home to a five-star game lodge, presenting the opportunity to make the best of the breathtaking beauty of the African wild. This exclusive game lodge is renowned for its fine dining, expensive champagne, pampering sessions, game drives at sunset and private chalets. It attracts staff and guests who are up to all kinds of shenanigans.

Episode: 1/208 Duration: 24' Rating: PG13

Episode Synopsis:

Dinaledi Lodge prepares for a banquet to celebrate the concession agreement but the world is thrown into crisis when Tiro threatens to sell the land. Tristan convinces Tiro that illegal hunting is going on and that it is an inside job. Bernie has to leave her comfort zone to save the Morula Berry Cake from being a failure for another year.

Episode: 2/208 Duration: 24' Rating: PG13

Episode Synopsis:

Tiro's decision to sell the land comes under pressure from both Itumeleng and his own family, and causes ructions amongst the van Reenen's. Lelo is fully expecting Modise to propose, but at the critical moment, nature gets in the way. Bernie's quest for Morula berries leads her down unexplored avenues.