A delightful story about the journey of life

Synopsis:

Die Boekklub is the story of a young hipster from Cape Town, Tom Niemandt. He inherits his grandmother's guest house in the small Karoo town of Merweville. One condition of his inheritance is that he must remain in the village for a year. Tom goes to Merweville with the sole purpose of packing up everything and leaving as quickly as possible, however, he seems to also inadvertently inherit his grandmother's book club. Together with this group of outcasts, Tom starts a journey, that will change his life irrevocably.
