

Date My Family

Season 1

Episodes: 33 Duration: 48'

Can you really trust your family to find you love?

Synopsis:

Date My Family is a South African reality television show in which singles who are looking for love are sent on dates with the families of three potential partners. The singles must decide who to date based solely on the impression their family gives. The three potential partners watch on screen as the bachelor/bachelorette engages with the families. The bachelor/bachelorette makes a choice and goes on a date with the chosen person.

Episode: 1/33 Duration: 48' Rating: 13L

Episode Synopsis:

Aggrexious Mahalangu, a 22 year old third-year psychology student has been single for three years and is looking into getting back into the dating game. We send her to three families with whom she will share a meal with the aim of selecting one of their sons as her final date. Ntonkozo's family from Thembisa lives the closest to Aggrexious and thus has the greatest advantage in winning her over. Romeo's family, who live in Heidelberg, which is the furthest have the greatest disadvantage because of distance. Auston's family is the most vibrant. All three bachelors have similar attributes to the kind of man that Aggrexious is looking for. Who will Aggrexious choose for her final date?